1. Applicant is given no new time period if the non-compliant amendment is an after-final amendment or an amendment filed after allowance. If applicant wishes to resubmit the non-compliant after-final amendment with corrections, the entire corrected amendment must be resubmitted.
2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. Continuation of 1(c) Other: Several submissions have been received for the specifications. It is unclear whether some particular parts of the specifications are being replaced or whether the entire specification is being replaced. A statement that no new matter has been added to the specification should accompany the amendment to the specification and that the entire specification is being replaced with the submitted version if the entire specification is being replaced. Otherwise, a statement that no new matter has been added to the specification should accompany the amendment to the specification and the Applicant should point out what parts of the specifications are being replaced and the location of these parts.

Continuation of 3(c) Other: Drawings were submitted on 22 November 2005. The Applicant should make reference to these drawings in the remarks portion of the reply. A statement that no new matter has been added to the drawings should be included in this section.

Continuation of 4(e) Other: Claims should be provided in a separate sheet of paper containing only the claims. Claims 1 and 2 should be listed and the identifier "(Canceled)" should be used. The identifier of claim 3 should be "(New)" not "Original". Identifiers should be provided in the parenthesis. Numbering of the lines of the claims should be located in the margin area of the paper and not in the front of each line. The first letter of the claim should be a capital letter.
